Who we are?

As the Avoris Global Bedbank, we will provide a service to wholesalers and tour operators, offering access to a portfolio of more than 100.000 properties, consisting of direct contracts in leisure destinations with special focus on the Spanish coast and islands, national and international hotel chains with a strong presences in the Carribbean and the integration of inventories from some of the most important suppliers in the travel industry.

You can choose the way in which we work together: via our website, through our modern and user-friendly booking engine; via API, integrating our inventory into your system; or offline, we will be happy to fulfil your requests for both Groups and Individual travellers.

“Our priority, your satisfaction. Large knowledge of tour operation and the national and international markets”
